

Federation of African Immunological Societies

The 8th Conference of the Federation of African Immunological Societies

2-5 December 2012, Durban, South Africa

Aims of the conference:

- To foster communication and networking among African immunologists
- To disseminate cutting edge research results
- To define specific needs of African immunologists from the FAIS (www.faisafrica.com)

Who should attend?

- Scientists, clinicians, technologists, students working in immunology

Special courses on the first day (register early, limited space!):

- Basic immunology
- Flow cytometry

Speakers confirmed to date:

- Abul Abbas (University of California San Francisco)
- Bongani Mayosi (University of Cape Town)
- Cecil Czerkinsky (IVI, South Korea)
- Charles Wiysonge (VACFA, South Africa)
- Chidi Nweneka (African AIDS Vaccine Program)
- Clive Gray (Immunopaedia)
- Eleanor Riley (LSHTM, United Kingdom)
- Faith Osier (Wellcome Trust, Kenya)
- Frances Ndung'u (Wellcome Trust, Kenya)
- Henry Mwandumba (Wellcome Trust, Malawi)
- Joanne Flynn (University of Pittsburgh)
- Kanury Rao (ICGEB, India)
- Keertan Dheda (University of Cape Town)
- Maria Yazdanbaksh (Leiden University)
- Nono Mkhize (NICD)
- Ofer Levy (Harvard, USA)
- Peter Aaby (Bandim Health Project, Guinea Bissau)
- Pontiano Kaleebu (Virus Research Institute, Uganda)
- Rick Maizels (University of Edinburgh)
- Ridha Barbouche (Institut Pasteur, Tunisia)
- Thomas Hawn (University of Washington)
- Thumbi Ndung'u (University of KwaZulu-Natal)

Registration, accommodation, abstract submission (deadline: 19 September 2012), conference programme: www.faisconference2012.com

HIV

Malaria

Non-communicable diseases

Neglected
diseases

TB

Vaccinology